-  Photography/Wildlife

Jewel of the Rockies

SHORELINE CRUISES

FEATURES of the TOURS:

Waterton Lake is a series of deep scenic bays, sheer vertical mountains and beautiful wilderness surroundings. It is the deepest lake in the Canadian Rockies. Enjoy the beauty of Nature from large comfortable boats as they quietly ply the water beside majestic cliffs. The boats make photographic stops to capture the breath-taking scenery and wildlife – be sure to bring your camera. You will sail close to shore where wildlife (bald eagles, bear, bighorn sheep, deer and moose) is often seen, and you can view rugged mountain scenery close up featuring:

- Towering Vertical Cliffs
- Unusual Geological Formations
- The International Border
- Waterfalls
- Mountain Streams
- Snow-clad Peaks

The cruise on the lake is accompanied by an informative, entertaining commentary – developed over the past 50 years and presented by experienced Interpretive Tour Guides.

Stop-overs of approximately 1/2-hour are made at Goat Haunt, the northern gateway to Glacier National Park, Montana, U.S.A. Debar at this beautiful, sheltered, uncommercialized area for a short visit to visitor centers with exhibits on park history and animal life. U.S. Immigration allows Canadian and U.S. citizens (with proper ID) to remain at Goat Haunt to hike. The most popular hike at Goat Haunt is Kootenai Lakes. Kootenai Lakes is only 4 km from Goat Haunt and is considered one of the best moose habitat areas in the Park.

The Shoreline Cruise vessels feature indoor and outdoor seating, twin diesel power for safety and are Coast Guard Certified each year. Our flag ship is the 200 passenger Historic "International," which has been in service since 1927. Step aboard this classic vessel and cruise back into the history of the park.
